The new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) comes into force on 25th May 2018 and Steelco U.K. Limited would like to let you know what data we hold, how it is stored and how we use it.

We do not hold any of your personal data, only data relating to your company (e-mail address, name and company details). These are the details provided by you and are necessary to enable us to fulfil the contractual obligations between our companies.

We take your privacy seriously and will only use this data to administer your account and to provide details or information that you have expressly requested.

The data is stored securely within our servers and is protected using up-to-date security software and IT protection which contain firewalls.

Your data will be retained for 7 years after termination of our relationship, to comply with our statutory requirements.

We will never disclose your data to any third party or sell or transfer our e-mail database.

If this is acceptable and you wish to continue receiving e-mails in the normal course of business between our companies then you do not need to do anything.

Should you wish to check what data we hold of you, please e-mail with your request to info@steelcouk.com.
